MEMORIAL (YIZKOR) SERVICE

Do not stand at my grave and weep,
I am not there, I do not sleep.
I am a thousand winds that blow,
I am the diamond glints on snow.
I am the sunlight on ripened grain;
I am the gentle autumn's rain.
When you awaken in the morning's hush,
I am the swift uplifting rush
Of quiet birds in circled flight.
I am the soft star that shines at night.
Do not stand at my grave and cry.
I am not there, I did not die.

MEMORIAL SERVICE

יהוה, מָה אָדָם וַתִּדְעֵהוּ, בֶּן-אָנוּשׁ וַתַּחֲשְׁבֵהוּ
אָדָם לַהֶבֶל דָּמָה, יָמָיו כְּצֵל עוֹבֵר.
בְּבִקְרָה יִצִּיץ וְחָלָף, לָעֶרֶב יִמּוֹלֵל וַיִּבֶשׁ.
תָּשֵׁב אָנוּשׁ עַד דְּכָא, וַתֹּאמֶר שׁוּבוּ בְנֵי אָדָם.
שׁוּבָה יְהוה, עַד מָתִי, וְהִנַּחֵם עַל עַבְדֶּיךָ.

There is a time for everything, for all things under the sun:

a time to be born and a time to die, a time to laugh and a time to cry,

a time to dance and a time to mourn, a time to seek and a time to lose, a time to forget and a time to remember.

This day in sacred convocation we remember those who gave us life.

We remember those who enriched our lives with love and beauty, kindness and compassion, thoughtfulness and understanding.

We renew our bonds to those who have gone the way of all the earth.

As we reflect upon those whose memory moves us this day, we seek consolation, and the strength and the insight born of faith.

Tender as a father with his children, the Lord is merciful with His worshippers.

He knows how we are fashioned, remembers that we are dust.

Our days are as grass; we flourish as a flower in the field.

The wind passes over it and it is gone, and no one can recognize where it grew.

But the Lord's compassion for His worshippers, His righteousness to children's children, remain, age after age, unchanging.

Three score and ten our years may number, four score years if granted the vigor.

Laden with trouble and travail, life quickly passes, it flies away.

What are mortals, eternal God, that You should be mindful of them?

What are mortals, that You should take note of them, that You have made them little less than angels?

The sounds of infants attest to Your power, the magnificence of life reflects Your glory.

The heavens display Your splendor. What majesty is Yours throughout the world!

Teach us to use all of our days O Lord, that we may attain a heart of wisdom.

Grant us Your love in the morning that we may joyously sing all our days.

שׁוֹיִתִּי יְהוָה לְנַגְדֵי תְמִידָה, כִּי מִיָּמִינִי בַּל אָמוּט.
לְכֵן שָׂמַח לְבִי וַיִּגַּל כְּבוֹדֵי אֶף בְּשָׂרֵי יֹשֶׁכֶן לְבֶטֶח.

When I stray from You, O Lord, my life is as death;
but when I cleave to You, even in death I have life.

You embrace the souls of the living and the dead.

The earth inherits that which perishes.

The dust returns to dust; but the soul, which is God's, is immortal.

The Lord has compassion for His creatures.

He has planted eternity within our soul, granting us a share in His unending life.

He redeems our life from the grave.

May we all be charitable in deed and in thought, in memory of those we love who walk the earth no longer

May we live unselfishly, in truth and love and peace, so that we will be remembered as a blessing, as we this day lovingly remember those whose lives endure as a blessing.

Our generations are bound to each other as children now remember their parents. Love is strong as death as husbands and wives now remember their mates, as parents now remember their children. Memory conquers death's dominion as we now remember our brothers and sisters, grandparents, and other relatives and friends.

The death of those we now remember left gaping holes in our lives. But we are grateful for the gift of their lives. And we are strengthened by the blessings which they have left us, by precious memories which comfort and sustain us as we recall them this day.

We Wait Too Long

Death has claimed a loved one,
Thus reminding us of our own mortality.

Our days on earth are limited;
We know not to whom the morrow belongs.

Yet we often postpone for the future
Deeds which should be performed today.

We wait too long to show kindness,
To speak words of gratitude and concern.

We wait too long to set aside hatreds,
To banish petty grievances and resentments.

We wait too long to forgive the hurts we have suffered,
And to ask forgiveness for those we have inflicted.

We wait too long to set aside selfishness,
To give of our time and to share our bounty.

We wait too long to expand our horizons,
To enlarge our minds, to nourish our souls.

We wait too long to make the most of our gifts,
To nurture creative spirits, to strive for growth.

We wait too long to give the love
Which may no longer be needed tomorrow.

We wait too long to discipline ourselves,
To master and take charge of our lives.

We wait too long to become better Jews,
More learned, more devoted, more caring.

In tribute to our departed, let us now resolve
To wait no longer, to delay no more;

Rather, let us begin to do now,
Those good things which can be done today.

Each congregant silently reads the appropriate prayers on the following pages.
Personal meditations may be added.

The memory of your life, dear father, rises before me this solemn moment, as I recall all the years of unselfish devotion, kindness, love and encouragement which you have shown me during your life. I recall all the sacrifices you made for my welfare, and the many comforts with which you provided me. You rejoiced in my achievements, you guided me in my perplexities, and strengthened me in my trials and disappointments. The passing of time will never diminish the blessed memories of your life. I can pay tribute to you by cherishing the ideals and principles you taught me, by continuing the noble work you have left unfinished, and by serving my people and all who need me. Though you are gone from my physical presence, the bond of love which unites us can never be severed.

My heart is filled with tender emotion as I recollect the many sacrifices you made to ennoble my heart and instruct my mind. I am grateful for your every blessing, your kindly deeds, your understanding heart, your sacrificial devotion and your warm love so freely given. What I achieved has been enhanced through your influence, and what I am, I have become in light of the moral teaching that you have given me. Indeed, the wisdom that you imparted unto me shall ever remain with me. In tribute to your beautiful memory, I implore your inspiration to noble and intelligent living as I cherish the recollections of your lifetime.

Though few were the years wherein I rejoiced with my child, many were the blessings that he/she brought into my household. ### Psalm 23

The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want.

יְהוָה רֹעִי לֹא אֶחְסָר.

He gives me repose in green meadows.

בְּנֵאֲוֹת דִּשְׂא יִרְבִּיצֵנִי.

He leads me beside the still waters to revive my spirit.

עַל-מֵי מְנַחֹת יַנְהִילֵנִי. נַפְשִׁי יִשׁוּבֵב.

He guides me on the right path, for that is His nature.

יְנַחֵנִי בְּמַעְגְּלֵי-צְדָק לְמַעַן שְׁמוֹ.

Though I walk in the valley of the shadow of death, I fear no harm for You are with me.

גַּם כִּי-אֵלֶךְ בְּגֵיאַת צִלְמוֹת לֹא-אִירָא רָע כִּי-אַתָּה עִמָּדִי

Your staff and Your rod comfort me.

שִׁבְטֶךָ וּמִשְׁעַנְתֶּךָ הֵמָּה יְנַחֲמֵנִי.

You prepare a banquet for me in the presence of my foes.

תַּעֲרֹךְ לִפְנֵי | שִׁלְחֹן נֶגֶד צָרָרִי.

You anoint my head with oil; my cup

דִּשְׁנַת בְּשֶׁמֶן רִאשִׁי כּוֹסֵי רוּיָה.

Surely goodness and kindness shall be my portion all the days of my life.

אֵךְ טוֹב וַחֲסֵד יִרְדְּפוּנִי כָּל-יְמֵי חַיִּי

And I shall dwell in the House of the Lord forever.

וְשִׁבְתִּי בְּבֵית-יְהוָה לְאָרְךָ יָמִים.

WHEN WE REMEMBER THEM

At the rising of the sun and at its going down,
we remember them.

At the blowing of the wind and in the chill of winter,
we remember them.

At the opening of buds and in the rebirth of spring,
we remember them.

At the blueness of the skies and in the warmth of summer,
we remember them.

At the rustling of the leaves and in the beauty of the autumn,
we remember them.

At the beginning of the year and when it ends,
we remember them.

As long as we live, they too will live;
for they are now a part of us, as long as we remember them.

When we are lost and sick at heart,
we remember them.

When we have joy we crave to share,
we remember them.

When we have decisions that are difficult to make,
we remember them

When we have achievements that are based on theirs,
we remember them.

As long as we live, they too will live;
for they are now a part of us, as long as we remember them.

We have done every thing possible to make sure that our memorial list is complete.
If we have omitted someone, please accept our apology and let us know so that we can make the addition. Thank you.

May the Source of peace send peace to all who mourn and comfort to all who are bereaved, here and everywhere. Amen

May the Source of peace send peace to all who mourn and comfort to all who are bereaved, here and everywhere. Amen

ODE OF REMEMBRANCE

by Dr. Harold Malofsky

As Yizkor comes again and again, it carries vivid memories in its gentle winds.
Departed parents, children, relatives and friends, form life's final 'graduation class',
in their eternal sleep.

As we walk the endless rows of their permanent rest places,
we tarry a moment to weep,
for past things remembered,
in fragments of time,
suspended in our minds.

As we capture faded images in the recesses of our memories, we glimpse the triumph of their spirit,
rejuvenating us,
to go onward,
keeping our precious commitment to them,
of never forgetting from whence we came.

Eternal God, we have learned that “death does not mean extinction and oblivion” [Emet Ve-Emunah]. If the soul is truly immortal, then our ability to touch other people does not end with death. May the memory of our loved ones’ devotion to (family/friends)

good humor and sense of compassion goodness

gentleness and thoughtfulness strength of convictions warmth and friendship

integrity and dedication patience and courage under affliction loyalty to the tradition of our people continue to inspire us, giving us the strength and courage to live as they would have wanted us to live.

When my loved one is taken from me, shall I mourn?

When my dear one departs forever, shall I wail and rend my flesh as I do my garment?
No! That is not the way,

I may find the road ahead lonely.
I may dread tomorrow without that voice,
without that smile.
I may not know whence will come the courage to continue.
Yet I shall not despair!

I shall praise G-d who gave me my beloved.
I shall sing unto G-d who enables us to love.
I shall voice thanks for what I have had.
I will refuse to become bitter over what I shall lack.

When my loved one leaves me, I shall indeed shed tears.

Yet, even then, I shall utter a hymn -
A song of joy for what has been.

BARUKH ATAH ADONAI!

Praised are You, O G-d!

You have allowed me to know love;
You have granted me an eternal treasure.
- Simcha Kling -

I'm not asking G-d to change the world.
I'm not asking G-d to make this a world where people no longer die, where people are automatically good,
where they must choose good because they are incapable of evil.

If I weren't sure of G-d, if I couldn't be sure that justice, courage, and peace
were things G-d wanted,
I'm not sure I could go on working for them.

If I didn't believe G-d cared about me and how I live,
that G-d takes every human life seriously and invests it with significance,
I couldn't believe that the world was on the way to becoming G-d's kind of world.
I think I'd be too scared of death and evil to help anyone.

So I'm not asking G-d to change the world for me
I ask only one thing of G-d, nothing but this:
Reassurance that G-d is there.
That G-d is real. That G-d makes a difference.
Let me know that. Let me find G-d in my own power to grow and to believe, to sanctify and to help others,
and I will know that I'm not alone.
My world will be filled with light and with strength.
