FROM OUR RABBI

Dear Friends,

The High Holy Days, Rosh Hashanah, and Yom Kippur are upon us. During this season of reflection and tshuvah, I am reminded of a quote by Rabbi Yisrael Salanter, who said, "As long as the candle is still burning, it is still possible to accomplish and to mend."

It is in this light that there is a fable concerning Rabbi Salanter. It tells the story that one night, Rabbi Salanter was walking home past the home of a shoemaker, and despite it being extremely late, he observed the shoemaker was still busy, working by the light of a single candle. "Why are you still working?" Rabbi Salanter asked him. "It is very late, and soon the candle will go out." The shoemaker replied, "As long as the candle is still burning, it is still possible to accomplish and to mend shoes."

In other words, it is never too late to change our ways and mend our shoes (souls). This is true not only on Rosh Hashanah and in the lead-up to Yom Kippur, as there is a period in between called, The 10 Days of Teshuvah/ Repentance.

These 10 Days of Repentance (Aseret Yamei Teshuvah) are the 10 days between Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur. The notion of this period can be traced back over 1500 years when the rabbis of the Talmud said that this phase of time is when "the gates of heaven are open, and I (God) will listen to your prayers." In other words, God is close at hand and waiting for us to change our ways. This theological principle can be traced back to the Book of Isaiah, whereby the prophet wrote, "Seek God when He may be found; call Him when He is close" (Isaiah 55:6). These 10 days between inscription and sealing of our names in the Book of Life is critical and thus the emphasis on the period between Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur.

The question we must ask ourselves is, what can we do during these 10 days for the inscription of our names to become permanently sealed in B'Sefer Hayim/The Book of Life? According to Maimonides, "it is customary for all of Israel to give profusely to charity, perform many good deeds, and be occupied with observance of God's commandments from Rosh Hashanah until Yom Kippur to a greater extent than during the remainder of the year" (Mishna Torah, Laws of Teshuvah 3:4).

While this is a great path for these 10 days, I would like to suggest that if we followed this prescription during the other 355 days a year, we would not only be sealing our names in the Book of Life, but we would also be inspiring society to follow suit.

Thereby ensuring a better life for all both within our books as well as among the codices of the world.

At the culmination of these 10 days, we transition into the Kol Nidre and Yom Kippur services. Our goal after observing Rosh Hashanah and looking within ourselves for 10 days should be based upon the wise words of Rabbi Marc D. Angel, who said, "We should not be the same person the day after Yom Kippur that we were the day before Yom Kippur. We should be moving ahead, raising our lives to a higher level."

Without a doubt, these are powerful words to reflect upon and live by. Consequently, let us use this holiest of days of the year and the intermediary days of introspection to meditate on the past, change our ways in the present and move forward into the future as better human beings than we were when we started. Incorporating these lessons into our lives is the embodiment of living a life of mitzvot. Thus, ensuring that 5783 will be a holy and blessed year.

B'Shalom and Friendship,
Rabbi Andrew Bloom

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

It is hard to believe that a year ago, I was talking to our members about the many changes in our society with the Covid Pandemic still at hand. Now one year later, we are still dealing with these changes in behavior in our daily lives and experiences.

The one thing that has not changed is we still honor and appreciate our spiritual values. Having a safe place to pray and be with our fellow Jews is a way to find comfort and understanding. We learn there are many ways to reconnect with one another and most importantly, with God. Our members appreciate the opportunity to come back to our synagogue. I hope all our members will join us in person this year for what will be very spiritual and beautiful services for Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur.

Rabbi Bloom is working with our High Holy Days Cantor, Cantor Pablo Duek, to help our congregation have wonderful services and a great rededication to CAS. I believe we will all benefit greatly by having our membership be together and back in the synagogue. So please come back to CAS and reconnect with each other, refresh your dedication to CAS and help move our congregation forward. With all of us together, we can establish ourselves again as a great conservative congregation with room for everyone.

LEARNING & ENGAGEMENT CENTER

Shalom Families,

As the summer winds down and the beginning of the new year approaches, the teachers and I are full of excitement and anticipation ahead of another school year that is almost upon us. The summer has been filled with work, learning, and preparation on our part for the coming year so we can provide your children with the best learning experience to date. The teachers and I are in the final stages of preparation for this upcoming school year.

We plan to introduce a few changes this year:

- Every session of Hebrew classes will start first thing in the morning.
- Students will attend Hebrew classes according to their language level and not their age group. This is so we can provide the appropriate lesson plan accordingly.
- Judaica studies will take place in the second part of the day and are based on the ISJL curriculum.
- This year we will have a new class for kids 2-3 years of age. Through every session's unique interaction our students will learn to recognize Jewish symbols, holidays, Torah stories, games, songs, and prayers.

As the Hebrew new year, 5783 is coming up, we are looking forward to meeting you and seeing you at our school.

On behalf of the CAS LEC, we wish y'all a very happy Rosh Hashanah! May you have an amazing year ahead!

COMMUNITY SECURITY AWARENESS

Community-Wide Pre-High Holy Days Security Awareness Opportunities

On Sunday, September 18, the Tarrant County Jewish Community is fortunate to have Secure Community Network representatives Stuart Frisch and Stephanie Viegas with us again to help us prepare our thinking for the High Holy Days, in terms of awareness and activity surrounding us. In a combined Situational Awareness and Active Threat Mitigation training featuring highlights from both, followed by a series of practical, hands-on exercises, we will experience the important moments that prepare us for day-to-day situations as well as High Holy Days.

You are welcome to attend any of these training times/locations:

- Congregation Ahavath Sholom Fort Worth: 9:00 AM
- Beth-El Congregation Fort Worth: 11:30 AM
- Congregation Beth Israel Colleyville: 3:00 PM

That evening at 7:00 PM at Beth-El, is an additional Community High Holy Days Security Roundtable at which Colleyville, Arlington, Fort Worth police and FBI will brief us on threats/trends and how they want to receive information from us on suspicious activity. This is also your chance to ask questions about safety and security with your synagogue representatives and police. Online preregistration is required.

Watch for updates in the weekly CAS email.

Presented by the Jewish Federation of Fort Worth and Tarrant County, Beth-El Congregation, Congregation Ahavath Sholom and Congregation Beth Israel.

HIGH HOLY DAY ATTENDANCE

The High Holy Day services are here again. With the pandemic restrictions (masking, vaccination requirements, enforced distancing) removed this year, we are glad to report that services will be back to normal!

Here's the plan for your High Holy Days attendance:

- While tickets are required to attend, they will not be mailed to you unless you request it. We will have member tickets alphabetically by last name for you to pick up when you arrive.
- Bringing guests? Let us know in advance who you is joining you for services, and we will create tickets for them. Theirs will be filed with your tickets.
- Guests choosing to join us without preregistration are welcome also! We will have a special location for you to stop, give us some information, and receive your tickets.

With the pandemic exhaustion we all feel, services are needed now more than ever. Guests may attend free of charge once registered.

WE GRATEFULLY ACKNOWLEDGE THE CONTRIBUTIONS OF OUR MEMBERS AND FRIENDS

RECIPROCITY LETTERS

We hope that you will join us for services this year. However, if you will be attending services at another synagogue, you may need to provide a Reciprocity Letter.

Please contact the office either by email (info@ahavathsholom.org) or phone (817.731.4721) with your request.

Parents of school-age children attending services may request a Student Absence Excuse. The deadline to request an absence excuse for the 1st and 2nd Day of Rosh Hashanah is Wednesday, September 21st. The letters will be available for pick up at services on Monday, September 26th.

The deadline for excuses for students attending Yom Kippur services is Thursday, September 29th. The letters may be picked up at services.

Please contact the office either by email (info@ahavathsholom.org) or phone (817.731.4721) with your request.

PROJECT ISAIAH

This year we look forward to continuing the tradition of helping others in need. Project Isaiah, the collection of donations of non-perishable food, will begin on Kol Nidre, Tuesday, October 4th. Please bring your items throughout the High Holy Days. The final day to donate is Friday, October 21st. All collected items received will be taken to the food pantry at Arborlawn United Methodist Church.

Don't forget to order for both Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur!

All items will be baked meat-pareve in the Congregation Ahavath Sholom (CAS) kosher kitchens. Each purchase will come sealed and labeled as kosher meat-pareve, perfect for your house or to bring as a hostess gift.

Orders must be turned in no later than Monday, September 12, 2022 to Liz Chesser at 503-810-6839 or panthercitypastries@gmail.com. Please DO NOT contact the CAS office with orders this year. Orders will be ready for pickup at the kitchen loading dock on Friday, September 23, from 1- 3 pm.

If you would like an earlier pick up, need an order shipped, or have any other questions or requests, please contact Liz.
