Membership Committee

Meet David Nudleman, CAS Membership Committee Chair. David and the CAS office love getting inquiries and guest information cards. David is always looking for help with our membership. If you are interested in helping please reach out to David or the CAS office

Save the date for our Celebrate Membership Shabbat weekend at CAS, July 28th and July 29th. Invite a friend that weekend and join us as we celebrate our newest members with a special new member kiddush on July 29th.

Apple Matzo Kugel

- 4 Matzo Sheets
- 3 eggs, beaten
- 1/2 teaspoon of salt
- 1/2 cup sugar
- 1/4 cup vegetable oil
- 1 teaspoon ground cinnamon
- 2 apples-peeled, cored and cubed
- 1/2 cup raisins

Directions:

Preheat the oven to 350 degrees F. Grease an 8x8 inch baking dish. Break the matzo sheets into pieces, and soak in a bowl of water until soft. Drain in a colander, mashing to squeeze the water out.

In a separate bowl, mix together the eggs, salt, sugar, oil and cinnamon. Add the soaked matzo and mix well. Fold in the apples and raisins. Spoon into the prepared baking dish, and spread evenly.

Bake for 45 minutes in the preheated oven, until nicely browned and apples are tender.

Spring is in the air! And I can't believe Day Light's savings time has already begun! We have managed to already be past

Spring Break and all the travel and fun surrounding this time of year. Now that we have moved past this ritual with our schools, Life moves on, full speed ahead, and hopefully everyone is managing. From the Hurricane strength winds from a few weeks ago, and now the recent rain and hail deluge, this reminds us all, if you don't like the weather, wait a few hours and it will change! Welcome to Texas Ya'll. On that note, I want to invite the congregation to help us welcome our new interim Rabbi/Cantor, Paul Dorman. Cantor Dorman is coming to live here in Cowtown for a few months and help us while the Rabbi is on Sabbatical. He is a vibrant, person, with wonderful skills and immense talent. I feel we are very lucky to have found him and I know our congregation will really enjoy what he can bring to our CAS family. We are having a "Welcome to Texas" kiddish lunch for him after services on April 1st. I invite everyone who can to come for services and meet Cantor Dorman. We have many things going on here at the shul. We are excited to announce that we are having a second night seder on April 6th at 6:30 this year to allow parents a way to join us for this great evening filled with tradition and wonderful food. Please get reservations quickly as time is nearing and we need to get numbers for the program as soon as possible. We will also be the location here at CAS for a Federation program, a special tribute for "Deep in the Heart" of Israel at 75! Kick-off event will be Sunday April 30th. Keep watch for more information on this special event. Please come join our congregation and enjoy the many opportunities we have before us.

I look forward to seeing everyone soon.

Foster Owen
President

This time of the year was always my favorite, as the short, cold winter days are coming to an end.

Nature's awakening is marvelous to watch as the trees are beginning to bloom, the birds have returned, and the grass is green again. Spring is truly on its way.

As I write this article, the month of Adar is coming to its end, after bringing us its joy, celebration, and opportunity to do good for others.

Now, we are about to celebrate Rosh Hodesh Nisan, the month commemorating the Exodus from Egypt. As in every year, during these past weeks, the LEC carried out its planned curriculum and marked important milestones on the Jewish calendar, as we celebrated Purim both at the Sunday school as well as at our congregation.

Our students took part in Family Shabbat service, demonstrating their maturity and knowledge of the Shabbat service songs and prayers.

We enjoyed festive desserts and drinks in our Oneg-Shabbat, sponsored by our generous Men's Club. Thank you so much for the delicious desserts and a memorable event of congregation unity.

On March 5th, we celebrated the LEC Purim Party, but preparations to complete the traditional holiday mitzvot started weeks ago:

We prepared Mishloach Manot (Purim baskets) for the Jewish Federation Senior's program and got a lot of food for the Matanot La'evyonim project to donate. The LEC students visited the Arborlawn Methodist church to donate the food we collected for the needy – completing the Matanot La'evyonim mitzvah of Purim.

We gathered in the Zale Hall to play Purim Bingo and Purim Shpiel, had a Purim dance party and Purim costume contest.

I want to thank all the students, teachers, and parents who joined us and participated in our celebration, and a special thank you to our student actors, and actresses who played in the Purim shpiel:

Yair Galaganov, Nathan Saul, Cassidy Nicholas, Seth Sherwin, and Hope Statinsky.

A big shout out goes to Michal Bloom, Inbal Morris, and Alana Tinnin for coming early in the morning to help set up everything and make it a very successful and memorable party!

After an intense month of fun activities and deeper learning the LEC went on a 2-week spring break, but more activities will come in April including:

The LEC Mock Seder.

B'nai Mitzvah class fieldtrip to the Dallas Holocaust and Human Rights Museum.

ISJL site visit at CAS by program associate Sophie Bernstein. We will take part in a special activity planned for our students and their families.

LEC Principal

Dear Friends,
 David Ben Gurion, first prime minister of the State of Israel, described the importance of the memories preserved on Pesach as he argued for the right to a Jewish State in 1947. “Three hundred years ago a ship called the Mayflower set sail to the New World. This was a greatest event in the history of England. Yet I wonder if there is one Englishman who knows at what time the ship set sail? Do the English know how many people embarked on this voyage? What quality of bread did they eat? Yet more than three thousand three hundred years ago, before the Mayflower set sail, the Jews left Egypt. Every Jew in the world, even in America or Soviet Russia knows on exactly what date they left—the fifteenth of the month of Nisan; everyone knows what kind of bread the Jews ate. Even today the Jews worldwide eat matza on the 15th of Nisan. They retell the story of the Exodus and all the troubles Jews have endured since being exiled. They conclude this evening with two statements: This year, slaves. Next year, free men. This year here. Next year in Jerusalem, in Zion, in Eretz Yisrael. That is the nature of the Jews.”

As we can see, the holiday of Passover is one of redemption, as it tells the story of the Israelites transformation from slavery to freedom. The Exodus from Egypt turned the Israelites bitterness of slavery into the sweetness of freedom.

It is in this light, that when I prepare to sit around the Seder table, I am reminded of the words of Rabbi Nachman of Breslove (1722-1810) who frequently said that, “The Exodus from Egypt occurs in every human being, in every era, in every year, and in every day.” Thereby, while the retelling of the story of the Exodus from Egypt is central to Passover, let us also remember that we must celebrate our daily Exodus’s and help ensure that we, and others, will never again be “avidim/slaves” but rather always remain “B’nai Chorin/free people.”

On behalf of myself, Michal and our family, we would like to wish everyone the traditional blessing of a Chag Kasher V’Samech. A Sweet and Kosher Passover.

B’Shalom and Friendship,

Rabbi Andrew Bloom

Thank You From Debby Rice

I am totally blown away. Not only was it lovely, you all did the sweetest thing for me and my 80th birthday.... and made me look like a queen that I've never been --- ever in my life.

The service was so special, and it was so nice to be a part of the service in such a sweet way. My family felt so special being there, and my friends who came from Dallas and my family from Chicago loved it so much. We have such love in our synagogue and you guys were just wonderful displaying this to me.

Now I need to repay you all and do wonderful things for the Shul.... much more than I have been doing. So put me to work!

I love you guys and want to make up for all the things you said or made it look like I actually do but haven't... so it is my turn to pay back!

Thank you from the bottom of my heart.... and beyond... and love you all.

Debby

My parents and grandparents would have loved it! I feel it was for them! Wonders never cease!

The Search for the Afikomen!

My little boy, Homer, loves to eat! He will try anything, and he usually has no complainants. Last year at Passover, he tried the gefilte fish and horseradish. Although he enjoys almost all foods, and he is pretty well behaved, the Seder can be very long for a two-year-old.

At my family's 2023 Seder table, I am very excited about the Passover tradition of searching for the Afikomen. My family has never really done this portion of the Seder either because there were no children at the Seder or Homer was not old enough yet. This year, Homer is at such a fun age to look for the hidden Afikomen.

What will your favorite part of Passover be this year? Will you and your family participate in any new Passover traditions? Passover is a very busy time of year that can require a lot of preparation and possibly traveling. Whatever you and your family do for Passover this year, enjoy each other!

Many Blessings,

Angyl
